What is Public Health Accreditation?
Accreditation is the measurement of our health department's performance against a set of nationally recognized standards. These standards assess the health department's capacity to deliver the three core functions and ten essential services of public health.

What is the Goal of Accreditation?
To improve and protect the health of the public by advancing the quality and performance of tribal, state, local, and territorial public health departments.

Public Health Accreditation Board (PHAB) Application
On January 6, 2017 the Department submitted our application to PHAB. This has officially lead us into Step 3 of the Accreditation Process – Document Submission and lock us into Version 1.5 of the PHAB Standards and Measures. We will have one year from the date PHAB accepts our application/fee to upload all of our documents into the e-PHAB system. It's going to be an exciting year ahead!

- Accreditation Outreach Round 4 – Wrapping Up
- Accreditation Newsletter – next issue to be released in April 2017

Nishalet "Nish" Wilson, Captain of Shelter Services (Supervising Animal Control Officer II)

to all types of music. Enjoying life!!!!

Nishalet Wilson is the Captain of Shelter Services with Animal Care and Control and has been with the County for over 21 years.

"I started as a Dispatcher in 1996 when I came to Public Health. I promoted up to Animal Control officer in 1999. I promoted up to Supervising Animal Control Officer I (Lieutenant) in 2008. Finally, I promoted up to Supervising Animal Control Officer II (Captain) last year in August.

I enjoy watching movies/Television shows (I can be a binge watcher), reading books, good nutritional-health and sharing my healthy finds with friends and family, listening

Animal Care and Control

The mission of the San Bernardino County Animal Care & Control Program is to prevent rabies in humans and pets, to educate the public about responsible pet ownership, including the importance of spaying and neutering, to protect and serve the public and pets by enforcing all laws and ordinances pertaining to Animal Care & Control, to care for all animals domestic and wild, to reunite lost pets with their owners, to place unwanted pets into new homes, and to maintain a high quality of service.
